AWARD MESSAGE

Excellent job Jake Mahoney on presenting your work on ████████ to a mixed audience of leaders. You had solid command of the facts, and were able to pivot and speak effectively to the product features, technology, aesthetics, and potential future variations. The prototype, and its functionality, were equally impressive. However, I think the biggest compliment was the discussion about "how might we present this to David Kohler". WOW! Given your short time in role, all of this is extremely impressive. Thank you for your hard work, your excellent communication, and your creative energy. Thank you for inspiring the NEXT and wishing you the best as you finish this co-op and finish your schooling.
